Brownell

1570

This original Brownell Coat-of-Arms, without the crest, was bestowed upon a Miss Elizabeth Brownell of Derbyshire, England, in 1570, by the English Government, as a recognition of her ability, which was one of the very few ever issued to a woman. The crest is omitted, since no crest, in England, is ever given to a woman, the crest only accompanies the coat-of-arms for prominent men.

F. F. Brownell, D. F. F.,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
April 1936.

Brownell

1682

The above Arms were granted February 8, 1682, by Sir William Dugdale, Garter Principal King of Arms, to Sir Robert Dacres, for his wife, Dame Mary Dacres, daughter and heir of John Brownell of the town of Derby, to be borne and used by her, the said Dame Mary Dacres, and the descendants of her body lawfully begotten, at all times and upon all occasions according to the Law and due practice of Arms without let or hindrance.

(Officially certified by the "College of Arms" in London, England).
